MISS SUSAN LAWRENCE ON "G.B.S."

"SHAW'S GREATEST LITERARY ACHIEVEMENT."

WHAT IT FEELS LIKE TO BE A LADY MINISTER.

NO MORAL SUPERIORITY IN SEX.

[By HENRY T. RUSSELL, UNITED PRESS STAFF CORRESPONDENT.]

(Copyright, 1929 in all Countries by United Press. All rights reserved.)

LONDON.—"Have a cigarette?"
asked Susan Lawrence, Parliamentary Secretary to the Ministry of Health and one of the two women members of Britain's Labour Government.

This was the prelude to an exclusive interview which she granted to the United Press and during which, after describing "how it feels to be a woman minister," she expressed the opinion that it was "in the hearts of humanity to prevent future wars" and not particularly in the hearts of the male sex.

"There is no moral superiority in sex," she commenced, explaining her contention that wars of the future could only be prevented by co-operation between men and women.

Fathers and War.

"Fathers," she added, "grieve as much as mothers the deaths of their sons. It is quite wrong, in my opinion, to think that mothers only should be able to prevent wars.
Woman's role in war is much the same as man's in that both suffer.
The only difference is that the one suffers moral torture while her mate endures physical pain. And so are the roles of the sexes similar with regard to the prevention of wars.
Equal franchise enables them to vote anti-war, if it is in their hearts to do so.

"Except that women's vote is new I don't believe that it is feminist. But I think that because they are newly enfranchised, women are taking more interest in their vote. The girls of to-day are taking their rights as a matter of course. They are, therefore, taking an entirely new attitude toward life. It is not, for instance, like in the days of pioneers like Sylvia Pankhurst. In her time women had to assert their rights—what few rights they had."

"Nowadays their rights having been duly acquired and recognized, all they have to do is to make use of them in the way they think best.
Hence they look upon the world with the viewpoints of full-fledged citizens and not, as before, as though they were political infants."

"It Feels Nice."

It was the very different outlook on the part of women which made it difficult for her to express to any wide extent just exactly "how it feels to be a woman minister."

Before answering the question she hesitated, then:

"Hum..." she smiled perplexedly. "Hum..." she repeated and finally added the statement which she immediately contradicted:

"Well, I'll tell you. It really makes no difference at all. You see I've been working on equal terms with men for a number of years in city administration. This has made me get over "that feeling."

Then, immediately she added:
"But, of course, it is rather nice.
It does feel just nice to be here, because, after all, it is a symbol of what we fought for in suffragette days, isn't it?"

With a Smile.

Miss Lawrence is that type of woman capable more than any other of obtaining what she wants in the "with a smile" fashion. In addition she is reputed to have brains equal to those of the brilliantest type of man and, which is more, she knows how to couple their use with—almost paradoxical—feminine charm.

Just imagine a most attractively dressed middle-aged woman with short grey hair wearing instead of the usual jewelled necklace, a black moire ribbon from which a businesslike pencil dangles in lieu of a pendant. Then try to picture her sitting in front of a large desk literally smothered with papers and imagine that by sheer grace of gesture and feminine personality

she can, at an instant's notice, transform a strictly business-like atmosphere into an afternoon-tea-like affair. If you can visualize this you can claim to have some idea of how it feels to meet Susan Lawrence.

"Architecture more than any of the arts, reveals the soul of a country," she said, coupling art with a discussion of Anglo-American relations. "I long to see the skyscrapers of America," she added because, she said, "they are impressive, now, magnificent, formidable. They are modern. They are the finger-prints of America."

American Architecture.

She added that she was the most fervent admirer of American architecture of which she had made some study from books and pictures. She was anxious to visit the States, she said, more particularly Chicago and New York; "because they are the heart of industrial life in the United States."

Art, she then explained, could become a formidable influence in problems of worldwide interest.
Take the writing of books, she said and when explained that to G. B.
Shaw, for instance, Socialism owed a debt in that through his writings many had had their attention enlivened to ideas which they would never have been willing to look into otherwise.

"Shaw has used all the resources of a great artist," she said, "to further a true knowledge of modern doctrines. What is his greatest achievement? He called the world's attention seriously to Socialism, probably more so than anybody else in the world. There are many who know of Socialism today who never would have known what true
Socialism is had they not read Shaw, because they never would have been willing to read of such theories from the pen of anyone else but G.B.S."

Miss Lawrence is one of the most popular members of the Labour Party. She has travelled extensively. She is very fond of walking.
She—in her own words—"adores the sea." Whenever she gets the opportunity she goes to the seaside, hires a sailing boat and lets the "waves toss me about while I dream." Before she became a member of the Government she was, for twenty-nine years, employed in municipal affairs.

THE DIOCESAN BOYS' SCHOOL 60TH ANNIVERSARY.

"AN ENDURING AND BENEFICENT INSTITUTION"—
H.E. THE GOVERNOR.

DR. R. H. KOTEWALL'S TRIBUTE TO PIONEER WORK IN PHYSICAL CULTURE AND MUSIC.

YESTERDAY'S CATHEDRAL SERVICE.

The great place which the Diocesan Boys' School has made for itself in the life of the Colony was shown by the support accorded to the celebrations of the sixtieth anniversary of its foundation.

H.E. the Governor (Sir Cecil Clementi, K.C.M.G.) addressed the gathering held on Saturday at the school premises, and expressed the Government's tribute to what has been done by the institution to further education in the Colony among all classes.

A distinguished old boy, the Hon. Dr. R. H. Kotewall, C.M.G., made special mention of the school's pioneer work in sport and also in the teaching of singing. The compulsory study of Chinese for all pupils was very warmly praised.

All the speakers paid graceful tributes to the Headmaster (the Rev. W. T. Featherstone) and his staff, and yesterday Mr. Featherstone preached at St. John's Cathedral an eloquent sermon on the school's aims and achievements. The scholars attended the service and their fine singing made a deep impression on the rest of the congregations.

"A SCHOOL FOR RICH AND POOR."

AT THE CATHEDRAL.

AN IMPRESSIVE SERVICE.

A special service for the School was held yesterday morning in St. John's Cathedral opening with the fine Pilgrim Hymn, which was sung in a stirring manner by the scholars. Two prefects of the School read the special lessons from Joshua I. 1-6 and Ephesians IV. 10-12. Then followed the hymn "Father in Heaven Who lovest all" during the singing of which six boys carried copies of the School records to the entrance of the sanctuary where they were taken by the Dean and laid upon the altar.

Special verses with a bearing on the school were then recited by the Dean and congregation. The whole service was well arranged for the purpose in view, and the volume and quality of the scholars' singing added very materially to its beauty and effectiveness.

The Headmaster's Sermon.

The Rev. W. T. Featherstone, Headmaster of the Diocesan Boys' School, preached on the main message of the two lessons "Be Strong and of Good Courage—for the Lord thy God is with thee wherever thou goest" and "Put on the whole armour of God."

It was, he said, appropriate that this service should be held in the Cathedral, for the wife of the first Bishop of the Diocese, Mrs. Smith, had founded the Diocesan Girls' School in 1860. She had worshipped in that Cathedral as had Bishop Randolph, who refounded the School in 1860, for boys as well as girls. In those days, the boys and girls had regularly attended morning and evening services at the Cathedral, and in 1860 the objects of the institution were stated to be to instruct children in the Christian faith according to the Church of England.

The preacher spoke of the amazing differences between Hong Kong as it now is and as it was in the days when the School was founded, when Wyndham Street, d'Aguilar Street, and Caine Road were the best residential areas, and large gardens with ample lawns bloomed where now is a teeming muddle of bricks and mortar.

The Diocesan Boys' School was, he said, an institution at which rich and poor were educated together. They helped one another in school, and this fellowship was, he felt, a very valuable training for life. Singing and music were, he felt, of great importance and if the whole world were to learn to sing there would be more unity between the nations.

The preacher went on to give a short summary of the aims of the school, its work, and how those aims had been justified in the pupils who had passed out into the world.

SATURDAY'S CELEBRATIONS.

BIG ATTENDANCE AT SCHOOL FUNCTION.

Among the many guests were H.E. the Governor (Sir Cecil Clementi, K.C.M.G.), Lady Clementi, M.B.E., and Miss Clementi, Captain A. J. L. Whyte (Private Secretary to His Excellency), the Hon. Mr. W. T. Southern, C.M.G. (Colonial Secretary), Mr. E. Ralphs (acting Director of Education), Hon. Dr. A. R. Wellington and Dr. W. B. A. Moore (Medical and Sanitary Services), the Hon. Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Kotewall, the Hon. Mr. W. E. L. Shenton, Sir Robert Ho Tung, Mr. Li Yau Tsun, C.B.E., Mr. W. L. Patterson, the Very Rev. A. Swann, D.S.C., Lieut.-Col. F. Hayley Bell, Professor L. J. H. Hodkins, Rev. and Mrs. Roof, Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Johnston, Mrs. T. K. Chan, Mr. Wong Tak Kwong,

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Trejillus, Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy Skipton, Dr. M. O. Pfister, Dr. Ma Luk, Dr. Ma Chiu Kee, Mr. and Mrs. Ho Iu, Miss Sawyer, the Hon. Mr. T. H. King, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Dykes, Mr. K. Tyson, Mr. and Mrs. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Wellington, Mr. and Mrs. Hayley Bell, and Mr. and Mrs. Forster.

Interhouse Sports.

The afternoon's programme commenced with the finals of the Interhouse Sports. A large number of spectators watched the games which were held on the School ground, the competitors showing keen rivalry and good sportsmanship. The Yellow House succeeded in obtaining highest honours after a thrilling struggle with the Green house. During the games, the Band of the 1st Battalion The Somerset Light Infantry under the baton of Mr. E. J. Woodcock, played selections on the terrace and in the hall.

THE CHAIRMAN'S WELCOME.

GROWTH OF THE SCHOOL.

Promptly at 5 p.m. the guests gathered in the School Reception Hall where hymns and prayers in thanksgiving for the School were offered.

Mr. W. L. Patterson, the oldest member in Hong Kong of the School Committee, who presided, said:—Your Excellency, Ladies and Gentlemen.—We are met together today to celebrate the sixtieth anniversary of the Diocesan Boys' School and Orphanage, and on behalf of the Committee, the headmaster, the staff, and the boys, I wish to thank Your Excellency and Lady Clementi for honouring this commemoration with your presence.

It is a matter of great interest to us to know, in looking back on the past history of the School, that from the year 1873 to 1875 Your Excellency's distinguished uncle, Mr. Cecil Clementi Smith, as he then was, acted as Chairman of the School Committee and he served on that Committee from 1871 to 1878. Since those times the school has grown with the Colony and there are now 235 boys on our books, of whom 110 are domiciled as boarders in this fine building.

Although the school was originally founded in 1860 it was then solely one for Chinese girls, and it was not until 1863 that its scope was enlarged and it became the Diocesan School and Orphanage, an institution for the education of children of both sexes of European, Chinese, and Eurasian parentage. In 1860 a separate girls' school was opened and since that date the two schools have been run separately.

Tribute to Staff and Headmaster.

As the oldest member of the School Committee now in the Colony, I should like to take the opportunity of expressing our appreciation of the splendid work done by the headmaster in bringing the school up to its present state of efficiency. I feel Mr. Featherstone's work is all the more to be commended, for at times he had laboured under great disabilities—I refer more especially to the changing over from the old school and the troublous times of three years ago when it was necessary to hand this building over to the Military Authorities for use as a hospital, and find temporary quarters.

Distinguished Old Boys.

The Hon. Dr. R. H. Kotewall, Mr. Chau Yue Teng and Mr. J. M. Wong, all of them old boys, and Mr. Wong Kam Fook have recently joined the School Committee, and we extend to them a hearty welcome.

They are the first Chinese gentlemen to serve on the Committee and with the large number of Chinese boys we have now in the school, we feel their advice will be of great value to us in some of the problems that arise.

It is, perhaps, worthy of note, to show the fine spirit prevailing in the school, that it is not our custom to give prizes. Our boys work for work's sake, and the fine record of the school, I feel, tells its own tale in this respect, and, furthermore, is an evidence of the great value of the Diocesan Boys' School in the educational work of the Colony.

H.E. THE GOVERNOR.

"THE FINE RECORD OF THE SCHOOL."

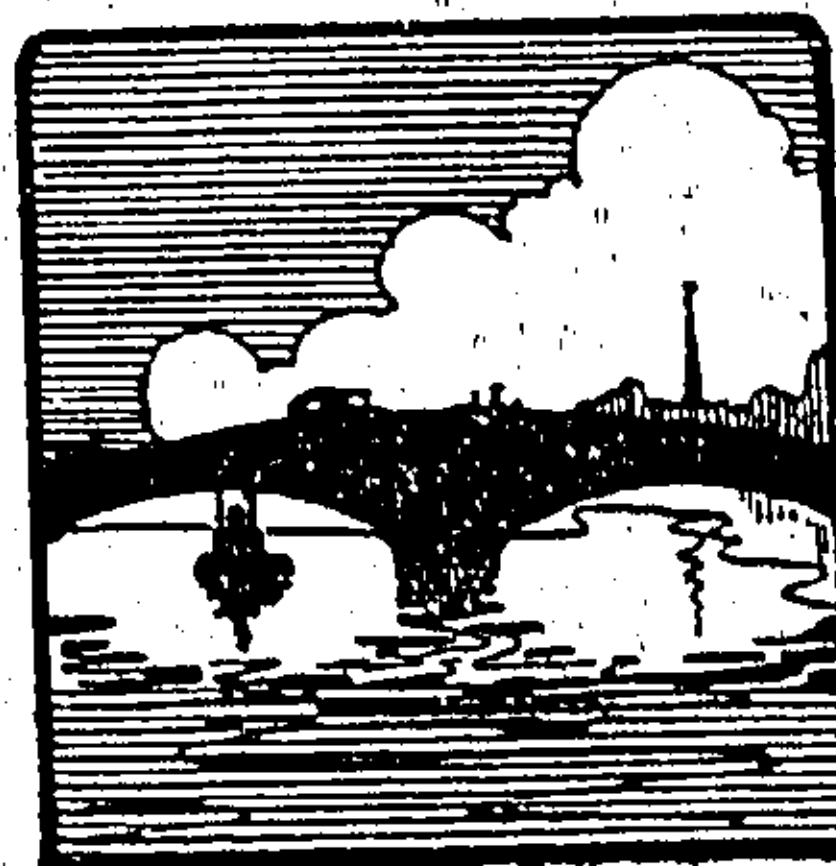

Mr. Chairman, Mr. Headmaster, Ladies & Gentlemen,

This is an auspicious day in the history of the Diocesan Boys' School and Orphanage. We are met to commemorate the sixtieth anniversary of its foundation. The school has, however, a longer record even than that, for it was in 1860 that the Diocesan Native Female Training School was erected at the corner of Bonham Road and Eastern Street in Hong Kong island with funds collected by Mrs. Smith, wife of the first Bishop of Victoria. THE "IRONSIDE"
MENACE.FIGHTING EXPECTED THIS WEEK.CANTON'S VIGOROUS MEASURES.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

CANTON, November 3.

The main body of the Ironsides has arrived at Lai Kai on the Northern border of Kwangsi, and advance guards are pushing southward towards Kweilin and Liuchow. Despite the many reports to the contrary the "Ironsides" are still a very formidable force, and though some estimates put their numbers at 10,000 only, 20,000 is a more likely figure. The deciding struggle between Chang Fat Fui's men and the combined Kwangtung-Kwangsi forces is expected this week.

CHEN TSAI TONG AT WUHOW.

General Chen Tsai Tong is at Wuhow directing the general plans for the coming campaign. The 80th Division, under Tsai Ting Kai, has been sent north to Kweilin and Pinglok where strong forces are stationed. On Saturday a big consignment of munitions was sent from Canton to Wuhow, consisting of 20 machine guns, several pieces of field artillery and nearly 40,000 rounds of ammunition.

THE AIR FORCE.

The 2nd squadron of airplanes, under Capt. Chen You Shing, left Canton for Wuhow early this morning. It consists of three planes, the "Spirit of Canton," and two bombing planes No. 104 and 110. These machines are expected to play an important role in the campaign. The greater part of the staff of the squadron left Canton for Kwangsi yesterday by a gunboat which also carried large quantities of stores and bombs.

General Chen Tsai Tong left Canton on Friday evening to inspect the defenses in Kwangsi. He went to Samshui by a special train and the rest of the way by the gunboat Tsap Sun. He was accompanied by Major-General Tsai Ting Kai, Mr. General Chen Ching and General Ho Law, and it is understood that they took with them $100,000 in silver for Lui Woon Im's army. Elaborate precautions were taken when they left, the streets adjacent to Wongsha Station being guarded by military automobiles and the route lined with picked troops. During General Chen Tsai Tong's absence Major-General Li Yang Kiang will be in charge of military affairs in Canton.

In an interview with local Pressmen just before he left, General Chen Tsai Tong said that he was going to Kwangsi to confer with General Lui Woon Im and other military leaders on the plans for the "Ironsides" campaign. "I shall," he said, "first go to Wuhow and then make trip to Kweilin and other strategic points on the Kwei Kiang to inspect the defence works. I do not know when I shall leave Wuhow for Kweilin, but that will be decided after I have met General Lui Woon Im."

"When do you expect to return to Canton?" the interviewer asked.

"I don't know," he replied, "probably within ten days," was the reply.

"Is it true," the interviewer asked, "that at least a portion of the 'Ironsides' have entered Kwangsi?"

"We haven't received any authentic reports to that effect yet," the General replied. "Even if this is so, no difficulty will be felt in suppressing them as they are nothing but bandits affiliated with Chang Fat Fui."

COMMUNIST DEN RAIDED.

FOUR SUSPECTS UNDER POLICE EXAMINATION.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]

CANTON, November 3.

In spite of all the warnings and a summary execution Communists are still busy. A barber shop in Wongsha was raided last night by the police and large quantities of seditious propaganda were unearthed. Four men were in the shop at the time, and all were at once placed under arrest and taken to the Canton Police Headquarters where they are still detained.

The barber shop has been recently opened, and as it was frequented by "odd looking" customers, the police soon suspected its real nature. The authorities are hoping to round up other Communists in the city, as it is believed that useful confessions have been obtained from the prisoners.

The Canton police are paying the strictest attention to newly opened shops, especially those with only a small working capital, like the barber shop referred above. The Communists have time and again resorted to these tactics in evading the police.

CHINESE RAILWAY'S DEBTS.

A PROMISING INVESTMENT!

[FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.]

Peking.—The American adviser to the Ministry of Railways, after an investigation of the Peking-Suiyuan Railway has made the following observations:—

The Peking-Suiyuan Railway re-organization scheme will cost at least M.$5,000,000 if the whole road is to be put in good order. The present accounts show a deficit of many thousands of dollars monthly. The daily takings are about M.$8,000, but the monthly expenditure runs as high as M.$125,000. The external debt is at present M.$40,000,000, and the internal debt over M.$10,000,000. The taxes along the line exceeds those of all other railways in China, and it is estimated that for every $1 freightage the taxes come to $1.80. Farmers in these regions only produce enough to support themselves and are unwilling to do more. Many farmers would rather use camels than send their goods by train.

ARMED ROBBERY AT KOWLOON.

A GANG OF SIX.

At about ten o'clock on Saturday morning, the ground floor of No. 20, Tung Hing Road, Kowloon, occupied by an Indian in the employ of the Sanitary Board was raided by six armed robbers. Pretending to visit a member of the family, the robbers got admission into the house and the inmates—four women and several children were ordered to keep silent. The invaders ransacked the house for about fifteen minutes, and then escaped through the back door with their booty which consisted of fifty dollars in cash, two wrist watches, and four gold rings.

A report was made to the police and detectives found at the house a sword and two "instruments" left by the robbers. The robbers are reported to be men of about thirty years of age and speak the Pundi dialect.

ALLEGED PIRATES
DISCHARGED.A MATTER OF SALT TRADE RIVALRY.

The three men who were alleged to have taken part in an armed raid on a salt junk within British waters in December, 1927, were discharged by Mr. T. S. Whyte-Smith at Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday. The Magistrate remarked that there was more in the case than met the eye and that it was probably based on rivalry in the salt trade.

The defendants were stated by the prosecution to be members of a gang which held up the junk and took the master and crew captives, holding them on an island near Macao for periods between a few days and seven months. Mr. Horace Lo appeared for the defendants.

THE DIOCESAN BOYS' SCHOOL
60th ANNIVERSARY.

educational progress made in the Colony since then is well illustrated by the fact that this Training School was soon in a precarious financial position, because there was not in those days a sufficient demand for western education of Chinese girls. In January, 1869, the situation of the school was so serious that Bishop Alfred, the second Bishop of Victoria, issued an appeal for funds wherewith to re-constitute it.

H.E.'s Uncle A Friend in the "Seventies."

The new constitution provided that the school should be open to boys as well as girls and that, in addition to its educational work, it should be an orphanage for destitute children in Hong Kong, China and Japan. Mr. W. M. B. Arthur and his wife were appointed Master and Matron of the School in July, 1870, when it contained 23 pupils. This second foundation was undertaken by Bishop Alfred "upon the advice of leading gentlemen of the Colony and those most interested in its welfare," and it is a great personal pleasure to me to record that one of those gentlemen was my own uncle and godfather, Sir Cecil Clementi Smith, then a civil officer in the service of the Hong Kong Government. He was a member of the Committee of Management of this school from 1870 to 1878, when he was transferred as Colonial Secretary to Singapore; and he with Mr. William Kewick, then taipin of Messrs. Jardine, Matheson & Company, Mr. H. Lowcock and Sir Paul Chater were responsible for guiding the school through its early years and for the appointment of Mr. G. Piercy in 1878 to be second headmaster of the reconstituted school. Mr. Kewick was honorary treasurer of the school from 1869 to 1888 and his successors as taipins of Messrs. Jardine, Matheson & Company were honorary treasurers of the school until 1902. Sir Paul Chater was a member of the Committee of Management from 1873 to 1925, a remarkable record in length of continuous service; and Mr. Piercy was headmaster from 1878 to 1918, a period of exactly forty years. These were the men who laid well and truly the foundations of the success of the Diocesan Boys' School and Orphanage, and we do well to-day to bear grateful testimony to their foresight, energy and perseverance.

Subsequent Landmarks.

Subsequent landmarks in the history of the school are the year 1878, when it was placed under the newly inaugurated grant-in-aid scheme of the Hong Kong Government; the year 1880, when a separate Diocesan Girls' School was opened, the buildings at the corner of Bonham Road and Eastern Street being retained as the Diocesan Boys' School and Orphanage; and the year 1926, when the Boys' School was transferred from its cramped quarters in Hong Kong Island to this fine site on the mainland. In May, 1926, the average attendance at the Diocesan Boys' School was 300. From March, 1927, to January, 1928, during the emergency which necessitated the despatch of the Shanghai Defence Force to China, these school buildings were let to the Military Authorities at very short notice for use as a hospital, in which eventuality there were 150 beds, and the school itself was accommodated in temporary quarters in Nathan Road.

During this period the average attendance at the school dropped as low as 205. On the February 1, 1928, the school reoccupied its own buildings and the average attendance increased to 250 in May, 1928, and to 282 at the present time.

All Nationalities.

A most interesting feature of the school is the very varied nationality of its pupils. About 70 per cent. of the boys are Chinese, but no less than twelve other nationalities were represented among the pupils in 1928. Boys come to the school from Shanghai, Hankow, Foochow, Amoy, Swatow, Wuchow, Canton and Hoihow in China; from all parts of the Colony of Hong Kong; from Singapore, Bangkok, Manila, Kobe, Formosa, Macao, Haiphong and Saigon; and in recent years boys have come from North and South America, from Australia, South Africa and several European countries. A better illustration could not be found of the cosmopolitan character of population for which education is provided in this Colony and of the correspondingly wide influence exerted by a school such as this. As an orphanage, the school has done excellent work for unfortunate children, many of whom have been in later life a great credit to the institution.

I am glad to say that, since 1922, Chinese has been a compulsory subject for all boys of whatever nationality at this school. All boys in all classes are taught to read, to write and to speak Chinese. This is as it should be. Another interesting and, to my mind, admirable feature of this school is that its pupils are given no prizes for class work or for games. The idea is to encourage all boys to work for their school and for the honour of their school and of their country without hope of material reward. I am glad to learn that this system has proved to be successful both in class work and in games.

Financial Support Needed.

The school has in the past depended entirely for support on Hong Kong and other places in the Far East. It is a Colonial Church of England school, but it has received no pecuniary support from England. Its financial position has recently been embarrassed by the troubles due to the anti-British boycott of 1923, which came upon the school shortly after work on its new premises, wherein we now stand, had begun, and which resulted in depreciation in value of its former site and a loss on the sale thereof including interest on loans, amounting to no less than $173,000. But, having regard to the fine record of the school in the past and present achievement, I cannot doubt that the Colony as a whole will rally to its support and will see that the funds necessary for its maintenance and expansion are raised without delay. This school will be, I am sure, one of the most enduring and beneficial institutions of the Colony and its past attainments are but an earnest of the success which awaits it in the future.

DR. R. H. KOTEWALL.

APPEAL FOR CHINESE SUPPORT.

Speaking in Chinese the Hon. Dr. Kotewall said: "As His Excellency the Governor has said, this is an auspicious day for the School; and in the name of the Chinese community I offer Mr. Featherstone, his able staff and the students hearty felicitation. His Excellency has just given us the interesting information that one of the gentlemen of the Colony who rendered such signal service to the School in the early stage of its career was his own uncle Sir Cecil Clementi Smith. Very few present probably know that among these helpers was my wife's grandfather, the Hon. Mr. Henry Lowcock, who was a member of the Committee from 1874 to 1880. It is a strange and happy coincidence that to-day, after the lapse of over half a century, His Excellency the Governor and I should find ourselves standing together in the Great Hall of the School, co-operating in rendering a small service to the institution.

The Diocesan Boys' School has always enjoyed unstinted support from many prominent and busy men because its aims are praiseworthy, and its achievements have been uniformly excellent. The School has been justly renowned for several decades; while in its general scholastic work, it has few peers and certainly no superior in the Colony. In the short period of ten years the school has won no fewer than twenty-one scholarships and studentships at the University.

Physical Culture and Music.

The School has also paid special attention to physical culture. I do not think the statement that it is the pioneer among schools in Hong Kong of physical culture and outdoor sports can be successfully challenged. It shows a proud record of achievements in Cricket, in football, in other games. In cricket, it has two old boys in the coming Inter-school Team, namely, Mr. D. J. N. Anderson and Mr. E. C. Pincher, and a third old boy, Mr. F. Simmer, is a reserve.

The management has also not neglected the spiritual side of the scholars. I will single out one of its activities for mention. I refer to singing. Some of us may wonder why I attach such importance to what is considered by some to be a mere pastime. Well, ladies and gentlemen, to my mind singing is a thing which can do infinite good. It not only affects the singer, but it affects the hearer, because "it waves away from the soul the dust of everyday life," but it also gives to the listeners the same pleasure, thus uniting the singer and the listener in one harmonious spirit.

In a cosmopolitan school where there is such a conglomeration of languages, nothing can better knit together the students, into one family than sports and music, of which singing plays such an important part. Supplementary to this aim is the admirable rule—introduced I think by Mr. Featherstone—that all students irrespective of race or nationality must take up the study of Chinese. This shows Mr. Featherstone's wisdom and far-sightedness, for from even materialistic point of view, it is good for the students, most of whom are likely to spend their lives in South China, if they have a knowledge of the Chinese language and its literature.

Justifiable Ambition.

Diocesan Boys' School is known in all corners of the globe and its good name has been built up by the devotion and hard work of the School Committee, of those who have had its immediate administration, and of the members of the teaching staff. Among these I must mention two names; they are Mr. George Piercy, and the Rev. W. T. Featherstone. Mr. George Piercy, during the long service of forty years, laboured hard and successfully for the School; and Mr. Featherstone, during the last ten years of difficulties and disappointments, has added lustre to the record of the School, and has achieved marked improvements and developments in all directions.

With such results to show, it is a matter for general regret that the School is now in financial difficulties. It finds itself in this position not through its own fault, but through circumstances over which it has had no control. I have heard it remarked by some people that the school authority was too ambitious in its present scheme. Those who know the school, differ from this view because they know that it must look ahead. The Kowloon Peninsula is rapidly developing, and I am sure that in ten years time, what is now considered by some to be too big a building will be found to be inadequate for its requirements.

A Matter of Fees.

I have also heard a complaint that the school has shown discrimination against Chinese students in the matter of fees. If in the past some differentiation has been made in the matter, I assume that it must have been due to the fact that many poor orphans had to be educated, housed, fed and clothed at the expense of the school, and that the school had to charge a slightly higher fee to those who could afford it, in order to make up for any deficit. I know, however, that for some years now students of all races have been treated alike in the matter of fees as in other matters, and I am therefore very glad of this opportunity to dispel what in some quarters has been a source of grievance.

I should like my compatriots to remember that for the last twenty years about 70 per cent. of the scholars have been Chinese boys, and the Chinese therefore reap 70 per cent. of whatever benefits—and I know they are many and important—the school confers on its students. I therefore appeal to the Chinese community for their generous support to this admirable institution, so as to enable it to effect the various useful developments and improvements which for want of funds, it has perforce to suspend. If in the future the school is able to produce creditable scholars in greater abundance, that result must be counted to your good deed.

MR. J. M. WONG.

AN OLD BOY'S TRIBUTE.

Moving the vote of thanks to H.E. the Governor (which was seconded by Master Kwan Wing-hong, the second senior prefect and son of an "old" boy), Mr. J. M. Wong one of the school Committee, said: "As an 'old' boy, I have sent my sons to this school and my daughters to the Diocesan Girls' School. I am very sensitive of the opportunity which I have to-day of thanking His Excellency and, through you, Sir, those various Government Departments for the kind and benevolent attitude always shown to this school.

Here we have education of the best quality for all classes and creeds; and I venture to predict that the school will continue to prosper and prove a worth as one of the oldest British Church schools in China. I have now great pleasure in proposing a hearty vote of thanks to His Excellency the Governor and to Lady Clementi for coming here to-day.

"AT HOME" ON TUESDAY.

The buildings of the School will be illuminated nightly until the "At Home" at the School which will be held on Tuesday evening. A Chinese Concert, a Gymnastic display, and dancing will form the main items on the programme for this function.

HONG KONG, NOVEMBER 4, 1929.

THE FIRST INTERPORT.

DURING the next fortnight we shall have the pleasure once again of seeing representatives of Shanghai and Malaya in the cricket-field, playing against local teams. The occasion seems appropriate for looking through some of the musty tomes in which are recorded the doings of the giants of early days. The encounters between Hong Kong and Shanghai extend over a period of sixty-three years, as the first match was played in Hong Kong as far back as 1866. After return matches the following year in Shanghai there was a break of twenty-two years before the teams met again (also at Shanghai), but it was not until February, 1892, that another match was played at Hong Kong. It was toward the close of 1892, when the Hong Kong team was returning from Shanghai, that the lamentable calamity to the 1891. Opening the innings against Shanghai with L. CLIFTON BROWN, he scored 57 out of a total of 230 in the first innings, but in the second knock was bowled when he had only scored 4. A few days before he made 94 against the Straits in the second innings, which he opened again with CLIFTON BROWN. "Dick" was also a very useful bowler in those days, very often going on as "first change." When he leads the local eleven in the match against Shanghai on Saturday, followers of cricket will feel that in him we have one of the ablest of captains. His vast experience of the game will stand him in good stead; he is one of those being able to get the most out of his men and, what is more, he always nurses his bowlers with rare judgment. Long may he lead the Hong Kong team, if not always to victory, to close and gallant defeat.

The first match of the Interport series was played in Hong Kong in February, 1866, and is described in the old scoring-books as a match between "Shanghai and the Civilians of the Hong Kong Cricket Club." The "Civilians" had matters practically all their own way; Hong Kong only required to bat once, and compiled the colossal total of 430! Shanghai scored 107 and 59, an aggregate of 166, leaving the home team victories by an innings and 284 runs! Of the Hong Kong batsmen STANLEY stands out as the best, his score of 90 being the highest of the match. A feature of the innings worthy of note is the enormous number of "sundries," as they were then called—namely, 50, and of these 41 were wides! It is not surprising, therefore, that a Press critic felt constrained to remark that the bowling of Shanghai "seemed decidedly weak." The batting of Shanghai was also disappointing. In the first innings the tail-enders scored well, compared with the others, for the two last men both scored over twenty—between them getting more than the other nine batsmen! In the second innings WELSH (38) and MACDONNELL (10) scored practically all the runs, for of the others only two broke their "ducks" for five runs all told. In all, half-a-dozen of the Shanghai batsmen aggregated less than ten for two innings.

Shortly after the middle of January in 1890 the first match between the Straits and Hong Kong took place on the latter's ground. The game was played in cold and wet weather, twelve men aside. The wicket was slow when Hong Kong batted, and by steady play a total of 289 was compiled. In the visitors were handicapped by the weather, which gave some of them rheumatism, and Dr. Fox, a really good bowler, had an injured knee which prevented him from doing himself justice. Eight bowlers were tried, but only three were successful in taking wickets. The wicket was in a better condition for the batsmen when the Straits opened their innings on the second day, but the team was dismissed twice for an aggregate of 133 runs, Hong Kong thus winning by an innings and 147 runs. In the Straits' first innings BIRCH (18) and Lieut. HIGGINBOTHAM (16) were the only batsmen to get double figures, scoring more than half the total, and a total of 289 was made. In the second knock the visitors made a total of 79. It was a sad collapse for the Straits, for the wicket was good, though it gave the bowlers just enough help to make them difficult. Still, the Hong Kong bowling was excellent; E. J. COXON took 10 wickets for 60 runs; Dr. LOWSON seven for 45, and E. W. MANTON four for 14.

The first match between Shanghai and the Straits was played in Hong Kong in November, 1897. The superiority of the Straits over Shanghai was pronounced; but the kudos rested with the bowlers. The Shanghai skipper won the toss and chose to bat. With three wickets down for 32 the outlook was not so bad, but the next three fell for eight runs, and the innings closed for 76. The Straits had equalled Shanghai's score when the third wicket fell, but the next four wickets fell for an addition of only 27 runs, and the innings closed for 138. MAN'S bowling was highly successful; he took six wickets at an average cost of eleven, three being clean bowled. Shanghai's second innings was much like the first—only worse. Three wickets fell for 13 runs, and the innings closed for 51, leaving the Straits victors by an innings and eleven runs. It was indeed a small scoring match, 985 runs being compiled for the loss of thirty wickets—an average of 8.8 per wicket. WARREN and MACKENZIE bore the brunt of the attack, but the end came when MACKENZIE relieved WHITLEY. MACKENZIE only bowled four overs, two of which were maidens; he took four wickets for two runs. MACKENZIE had five for 28 to his credit; in all he took 10 for 57, and MACKENZIE's five wickets cost exactly 4 runs apiece, while WHITLEY got four for 9.

"Dick" HANCOCK, Hong Kong's captain, first played in interport games as far back as November, 1891. Opening the innings against Shanghai with L. CLIFTON BROWN, he scored 57 out of a total of 230 in the first innings, but in the second knock was bowled when he had only scored 4. A few days before he made 94 against the Straits in the second innings, which he opened again with CLIFTON BROWN. "Dick" was also a very useful bowler in those days, very often going on as "first change." When he leads the local eleven in the match against Shanghai on Saturday, followers of cricket will feel that in him we have one of the ablest of captains. His vast experience of the game will stand him in good stead; he is one of those being able to get the most out of his men and, what is more, he always nurses his bowlers with rare judgment. Long may he lead the Hong Kong team, if not always to victory, to close and gallant defeat.

At about 6.30 p.m. on Saturday, a Chinese was seen to jump overboard while travelling on one of the Star Ferry boats from Hong Kong. The boat was stopped as was also another travelling from Kowloon to Hong Kong, but efforts to recover the man, who was heard to shout as he struck the water, proved fruitless.

The Chinese section of the Kowloon-Canton Railway placed an order not long ago with a certain British firm for two high-speed locomotives which are expected to arrive very shortly. When they are on the run, the length of the trip between Canton and Kowloon will be reduced to three hours and a half as compared with four hours at present.

At Central Magistracy on Saturday, a coolie employed at the School of Anatomy was sentenced to one month's imprisonment for stealing a large glass bottle used for storing alcohol. He was alleged to have sold the bottle to a marine hawker, and his arrest was brought about by Mr. J. Anderson, of the School of Anatomy, recognising the bottle in a hawker's basket. Seven other bottles were found in the defendant's room.

The famous Canadian Pacific train, The Imperial, recently began to run to new timing on the journey from Montreal to Vancouver—a distance of nearly 3,000 miles. The run is in future to be accomplished in three days 23 hours 45 minutes, thereby saving ten hours, acceleration made possible by the betterment of the road and improved equipment of the trains, and the use of new and powerful locomotives.

Following the sudden death of fifteen of the hunting hounds of the Duchess D'Uzes, one of the foremost sportsmen and patrons of many famous hunts, French veterinary experts have discovered that the breed of hunting hounds has been visited by a pest which is in the form of a small worm that attacks the intestines. Special measures have been taken that the malady should not be transmitted to other dogs, and at the approach of the hunting season, it is thought either that the hounds will survive, or be wiped out completely. The Duchess D'Uzes, who owns one of the largest packs, is optimistic and asserts that of those who escape she will re-establish a healthier breed.

Fragrant Jade. A Canton paper relates that Mr. Ho Fong Pak, the manager of the Tin Chun Yuen Vegetarian Restaurant, Wai Yee Road, recently purchased a very rare piece of the fragrant jade, known as "Lung Weng" or "Dragon Ring." All Ready for "Extrality Abolition." The following minute issued by the Civil Affairs Department of Kwangtung to the magistrate of the Po An district is eloquent evidence of China's readiness for the abolition of extra-territoriality! "We understand from our travelling inspector that reports are current in your district that Chinese infants at a certain Infant Asylum run by foreign missionaries are killed and the bodies used to prepare medicines. The report is from good authority and if accurate, the matter is very serious. You are hereby instructed to make careful investigations and report to our Department."

Gentlemen and Blondes. Both blondes and gentlemen are becoming rarer. The first premise is the considered opinion of Dr. E. N. Falaize, the well-known scientist. The second, is the verdict of Miss Anita Loos, author of "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes." Said Dr. Falaize in an interview:—

"From the earliest times, the fair Nordic types have been the rulers and leaders of the communities largely composed of conquered peoples. But owing to war, economic and political causes this predominance is diminishing." To this pronouncement Miss Loos responds:—

"Well, gentlemen are dying out, so it's all right. Of course, there are more brunettes, because, of course, they are the ones who marry. When the blondes are gone there is no one to educate the 'gentlemen,' so naturally the gentlemen die too." But according to a London beauty expert, it is a false conclusion to draw that because the blondes are disappearing, they are dying. Rather they are dying. "A few women are bleaching their hair, now," he said, "but there are quite a lot of women who are naturally blondes who are becoming brunettes. This change has been going on for some months, and there are certainly fewer blondes to-day than there were a year ago. However, this drift of the blondes towards brunettes is a good thing for the surviving blondes, according to C. B. Cochran, the British theatrical producer. "I quite agree," he said, "that blondes are getting rarer, but this means that gentlemen prefer the survivors more than ever."

Looking Back 25 Years. The prospect of the Kowloon-Canton railway has given a great impetus to business in the New Territory. A piece of Crown land put up by Mr. McI. Messer the other day fetched $182, though the upset price was only $48. On the other side of the New Territory, at Un Loong Market, two other lots of Crown land were also sold. The upset price of one lot was $24, and of the other $25. Both fetched $170. —Hong Kong Daily Press, November 4, 1904.

Looking Back 50 Years. The arrival of the Swedish Discovery gunner Vega, with Professor Nordenskjöld on board, is an event which should not be allowed to pass without something more than mere mention. The people of Hong Kong will, we are confident, join us in cordially welcoming and heartily congratulating the Discoverer of the North-East Passage. "Peace hath her victories, no less renowned than war," and the enterprise which Professor Nordenskjöld has conducted to so successful an issue has given him a far greater claim upon the gratitude of the world than the achievement of a dozen triumphs on the field of battle.

We have no need now to refer afresh to the feat which Professor Nordenskjöld has accomplished; his fame is in all men's mouths. All that remains for the citizens of Hong Kong is to give him the greeting due to labourers in the cause of human progress. What we have to welcome ought to be a welcome to others to decide, but Hong Kong should not be behindhand in honouring the man who has opened an other pathway on the great deep, solved an interesting and important geographical problem, and conferred a benefit on commerce and navigation.—Hong Kong Daily Press, November 4, 1879.

YEN, THE MYSTERY MAN.

SETTLING PROBLEMS IN CHINA.

MORE FIGHTING.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

PEKING, Nov. 2.

It is learned from Taiyuanfu that Yen Hsi Shan yesterday sent Ho Ying Ching and Fang Peng Jen. Later, in an interview, Fang Peng Jen declared that matters were satisfactory, as Yen Hsi Shan still desired Chinese internal problems to be settled peacefully.

However, in view of the fact that Nanking's envoys carried an offer of a military appointment, with a request to Yen to fight, it seems difficult to see in what respect Yen's attitude is "satisfactory."

News From Hankow.

Latest official communiques state that Nationalist troops captured Siehuanchen, in West Honan, yesterday, after a fierce battle. It is also claimed that the Kuomintang garrison at Tsielienchen have been forced to evacuate, and are retreating to Yenhsin. Violent fighting has so far been undecided.

Advices from North-West, Hupsh state that the Kuomintang from Kingtzekwan are advancing to Yunyang with the object of driving down the Han River to Loachokow. It is stated that panic prevails in Yunyang, from which place civil officials have disappeared.

Latest news of the Generalissimo reveals that he spent yesterday at Yencheng, and it is reported that he will leave for Chengchow to-day. In the meantime Yeh Kai Hsin, Chu Shao Liang and Hsiung Shih Hui have arrived at Hankow, and are conferring with Chang Chih Chung, before proceeding to the front. Mao Ping Wen's 8th Division, recently withdrawn from Kwangtung, is now garrisoning Wuhan. The local situation continues undisturbed.

Hand-to-Hand Fighting.

PEKING, Nov. 2.

Travellers returning here from Chengchow state that on Friday last the Kuomintang were still holding the line from Hsiehshikuan to Tengfeng and Liqiu which latter place is 12 miles south-west of Juchow. They were said to be repelling all attacks by Government troops.

Ten thousand men belonging to Hsu Yuan Chun, former Chihli and Shantung troops, which have defected, are now ravaging the country side round Chengchow. Part of Tang Seng Chi's army are fighting well, but the other half under Ho Cheng Chun are refusing to fight, hence Ho Cheng Chun's withdrawal from Tengfeng.

Wounded are pouring in to Chengchow from the Lungai front, mostly suffering from sword and bayonet wounds. They report that the Kuomintang is fiercely fighting hand to hand, probably for the purpose of reserving ammunition.

Busy Bandits.

SHANGHAI, Nov. 2.

It is reliably reported in Shanghai that a strong party of bandits, apparently working with the Kuomintang, cut the telegraph and telephone wires on the Kin-Han Railway, near the Hsiao-Tung border, but that loyal troops drove them back and restored communications.

It is reliably reported that other forces are marching into Chakiang via Taihu Lake. The Government forces at Chakiang will be able to oppose the invaders, who, it is understood, are not many.

CHANG HSUEH LIANG TO BE NEUTRAL.

MEETING THE RUSSIAN MENACE.

Mukden, Marshal Chang Hsueh Liang, chairman of the Three Eastern Provinces, held an important meeting attended by more than fifty leading officials. It was resolved that the troops of the Three Eastern Provinces shall remain on the border to meet any further Russian invasion, and that they will not participate in any civil war between General Feng Yu Hsiang of the Kuomintang party and General Chiang Kai Shek of the Nanking Government. They also sent an urgent request to General Yen Shih Shan, chairman of the Shansi Provincial Government, asking him to make an appeal for peace.

FIGHTING ON THE SUNGARI.

RUSSIAN TROUBLE STILL ACUTE.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

TOKYO, Nov. 2.

An urgent message from Harbin to the Rengo says that after severe fighting at Fuchinkien the Chinese were compelled to retire 50 or 60 miles up the Sungari in the direction of Hunchuan.

A Harbin message to the Rengo indicates the recrudescence of Soviet military activities both on the northern and eastern fronts in Manchuria.

According to Chinese sources the Soviet troops launched attacks at Tunging, southward of Pogranichnaya, twice during the night of October 30 and again at dawn on November 1, but they were repelled; while three Soviet planes bombed Fuchinkien, on the Sungari. Ten Soviet gunboats and a battalion of cavalry appeared later at Whang-chiatun, on the Amur, and attacked the Chinese troops. Severe fighting on this front is reported to be continuing.

In the meantime Harbin is filled with rumours that the Reds are planning to raid and destroy sections of tracks of the Chinese Eastern Railway. It is also reported that Mukden is considering the opening of negotiations with the Soviet shortly independently of Nanking.

Sinister Work.

A Harbin message says that information from Tachibata states that two mines exploded under the central dynamo of the electric power station. When the town was without lights the Soviet troops commenced a bombardment from the other side of the river.

TO ENCOURAGE FOREIGNERS!

THREAT TO TELEGRAPH COMPANIES.

[FROM OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.]

Peking-Wang Pao-chun, Minister of Communications recently sent a lengthy petition to the Executive Yuan asking for the immediate consideration of the retrocession of the Great Eastern Telegraph Co., and the Great Northern Telegraph Co.

The petition first gives the history of each telegraph company, the privileges given and the other clauses of the original contract between the companies and the Manchurian dynasty. The second part deals with the different types of telegraph and cable systems, namely, the submarine lines laid by the companies, and the lines erected at the request of the Government.

The latter part of the petition emphasises that the date of expiration of the contract is December 30, 1930, and requests the Government to make an early preparation to take over the lines and to make new contracts. It is stated that during the troublous years of the Republic the companies took advantage of the situation to lay lines on land which were not mentioned in the original contracts. The time has come, the petition says, for China to make new contracts with the companies concerned, and if necessary to take the lines over by force. The Chinese Government expects no difficulty in dealing with this problem, because it is concerned with Danish and British individuals, and has no international complications.

RELATIONS WITH RUSSIA.

AMENDMENT BY THE OPPOSITION.

TO-MORROW'S DEBATE.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUGBY, November 2.

The Conservative Opposition have tabled an amendment to the Government's motion on Russian relations which will be debated in the House of Commons next Tuesday.

The Government motion is in the terms:—"That this House is of opinion that a resumption of full diplomatic relations between this country and Russia is desirable, and it approves the procedure for settlement of the questions outstanding between the two countries, including those relating to propaganda and debts, as set out in the Protocol of October 3rd."

The Conservative amendment deplores the failure of His Majesty's Government to maintain the conditions which the Prime Minister and Foreign Secretary laid down for resumption of diplomatic relations, until these preliminary conditions have been satisfied.

EXTRALITY UNDER FIRE.

BOYCOTT QUESTION DISCUSSED.

STRAIGHT TALK IN KYOTO.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

KYOTO, Nov. 2.

Discussion on extrality in China were continued at the Pacific Conference to-day, including the present and future positions of the Concessions.

Some of the non-Chinese delegates maintained that the immediate rendition of Shanghai would produce chaos because, apart from the question of executive interference with the judiciary, it was held that the Chinese, owing to the lack of, inter alia, experience, would be unable immediately to assume complete administrative control of the city—a city which, considering its unique problems and diverse needs, had hitherto, it was admitted on all sides, been on the whole admirably run.

Some Chinese and foreign delegates, observed that no impossible situation had been created by the rendition of the Concessions already returned to China, to which contention it was pointed out no analogy existed between what was at stake in return for those Concessions and what was at stake in return for Shanghai.

China's Rights.

It was recognised on all sides, however, that the return to China of her sovereign rights, however difficult or impossible that might be at the moment, was a question of such first class importance, sentimentally and psychologically, to the Chinese that it must be faced, and, that that being so, it was wise to begin thinking of how the thing could be done.

While the discussions did not produce any concrete scheme in this respect, several suggestions as to possible lines of approach were made. It was recognised that even if there was complete rendition and jurisdiction of the Chinese Courts, there would still be Chinese obligations to foreigners under international law, the exact nature of which obligations it was suggested should be referred to the League of Nations for a definition as there might be a dispute about them.

One suggestion was that, abolition should be by the abrogation of existing Treaties, and that negotiations with that end in view should begin soon with a date to be fixed for the abolition, such date to be far enough ahead to give all nationalities time to adjust themselves to the change.

The Japanese delegates generally expressed sympathy with the idea of the abolition of extrality as soon as possible.

It is generally felt that the discussions on extrality and the Concessions have cleared the air a good deal as regards the issues at stake, as well as cleared the ground for some sane and rational approach to the solution of an admittedly difficult problem.

Political Interference. The Sheng Kung Pao case, in Shanghai, was quoted as showing political interference with the courts. Some of the Chinese delegates maintained that the Sheng's fortune was made "by corruption," the case was not a civil, but a political one. It was replied to this that according to such reasoning it would be easy for an executive to interfere in any civil suit, by making the excuse that it really was not a civil, but a political case.

Several suggestions were made by non-Chinese delegates regarding composition of courts in places like Shanghai, if extrality were to be abolished. One was that a commission of jurists of interested Powers might be appointed as a Standing Advisory Commission, with two kinds of powers: Firstly, to point out imperfections and abuses in the Chinese system, with the object of bringing pressure to bear through Chinese public opinion to get such abuses remedied; and secondly, to propose, in an advisory capacity, necessary or desirable changes.

The Japanese introduced the question of boycott, maintaining it should be prohibited as an instrument of international policy. One non-Chinese delegate said that the Chinese Government law announced that it would be so used. There was a diversity of opinion amongst the Chinese delegates on the point. This subject was not gone into at great length.

DISPUTES IN COAL INDUSTRY.

GOVERNMENT EFFORTS FOR PEACE.

A NEW CONFERENCE.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUGBY, November 2.

The Government has invited the Central Committee of the Coalowners' Association and the Executive of the Miners' Federation to a joint conference with the Ministers on Wednesday next. The conference has been called in an effort to prevent a wages crisis over the Government's proposals to reduce miners' hours, the coalowners having taken up the attitude that if hours are reduced they must reduce wages.

Acceptance of the invitation by the Miners' Executive is certain, as the Executive have pressed for such a conference at a meeting with the Government. Acceptance by Central Committee of the coalowners is not so sure. The fact that the invitations were not sent until after a consultation had taken place between the President of the Board of Trade, and the President and Secretary of the Coalowners' Association, suggests that a refusal is not expected by the Government.

There is reason to believe that the intention of the Government is to press on the owners the view that every possible effort should be made to carry on without any claim for lower wages and that an opportunity now exists for opening a new chapter in the relations between owners and miners.

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS AT HOME.

NEW LABOUR GAINS.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

LONDON, Nov. 2.

Substantial Labour gains and the failure of Communist candidates are the chief features in the results of the municipal elections so far, for which polling was held yesterday in 309 cities and boroughs in England and Wales, excluding London.

The final figures for 80 cities and boroughs available early this morning showed the following gains and losses: Labour, 102 gains, 12 losses; Conservatives, 11 and 68; Liberals, 13 and 28; Independents, 10 and 30.

The most sensational Labour victory was at Walthamstow, where Labour captured 30 out of 38 seats on the new Borough Council.

R.101 MAKES TRIAL TRIP.

LITTLE PRINCESS'S DELIGHT.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUGBY, Nov. 1.

The airship R.101 made another successful trial flight to-day. She left the mooring mast at Cardington just before 10 o'clock. Sir Samuel Hoare, former Air Minister, was one of the passengers.

After circling for about 10 minutes over Bedford, the airship made for Sandringham. The King and Queen and their grand-daughter, Princess Elizabeth, were on the terrace. The crew waved to them and the King raised his hand in reply. Little Princess Elizabeth clapped her hands in delight.

Thence the airship flew via Croymer and Norwich to Newmarket Heath, where racing was in progress. She circled over the racecourse and then proceeded to Cambridge. It had been intended to visit London, but owing to fog the airship returned from Cambridge to Cardington and was back at the mooring mast soon after three o'clock.

The highest air speed reached during the flight was approximately 70 miles an hour. November 15 is mentioned as the date on which her sister airship, the R.100, is likely to leave Howden on a trial.

All-Night Flight.

The R.101 made her first all-night flight to-night. She left her mooring mast at Cardington at 8 p.m., for the Isle of Wight, via London. She returned to Cardington at 6 a.m.

DOMINION STATUS IN INDIA.

"A NEW SPIRIT."

LEADERS' MESSAGE TO GOVERNMENT.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

NEW DELHI, November 2.

In response to the Viceroy's announcement with regard to the Dominion Status of India, thirty congress and other Progressive leaders, including Mr. Gandhi and Mrs. Besant, have signed a statement saying that they hope to be able to tender their co-operation with His Majesty's Government, in an effort to evolve a scheme for a Dominion Constitution, suitable for India's needs, provided that a policy of general conciliation is adopted, and that political prisoners be granted a general amnesty; also that representation of progressive political organisations, can be effectively secured. A National Congress, as the largest of these bodies, should have the predominant representation.

The signatories say that they understand that the conference will frame a scheme of Dominion constitution for India. They urge, in the meanwhile, that a more liberal spirit should be infused into the Government of India. They conclude by saying that it is essential to the success of the conference that it be convened as expeditiously as possible.

Government's Difficult Position.

LONDON, Nov. 1.

The Government is on the horns of a dilemma over its Indian policy, according to its opponents, who contend that Lord Irwin's declaration in regard to the dominion status of India is either mischievous if it indicates a change of policy, or superfluous if it does not.

The Daily Mail suggests that Conservatives should immediately move a vote of censure on the Government for encouraging a scheme of Dominion Home Rule in India which, it argues, would be disastrous to India and Great Britain.

The Government's realisation of the danger is indicated in the report of Mr. Philip Snowden on behalf of Mr. MacDonald, in which he warned recalcitrant Labour members that if they were defeated through any defiance or abstention of its followers, the Government would not attempt to carry on.

MUCH-DISPUTED BILL.

[THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.]

BERLIN, November 2.

The Nationalists are jubilant over the unexpected narrow victory in their campaign, demanding a referendum on the Bill "against rearmament of the German people," in favour of which enactment over 4,000,000 voters have inscribed their names.

The Bill will now go to the Reichstag, which will undoubtedly reject it, whereupon a referendum, held by over 20,000,000 people, must favour the Bill before it can pass.

IMPERIAL AIR MAILS.

SOME CHANGES MADE.

[BRITISH WIRELESS SERVICE.]

RUGBY, Nov. 1.

The Postmaster General has announced that owing to the damage to the Imperial Airways marine aircraft on the Mediterranean section of the England to India air mail route, the homeward Indian air mail, which left Karachi on Saturday, October 26, is being conveyed from Alexandria to Genoa by steamship and will not reach London before Tuesday afternoon next, November 3.

Until further notice the air mail will be carried from Croydon on the air route via Cologne, Nuremberg, Vienna, Budapest, Belgrade, Uskup, and Salonika (instead of via Genoa to Athens) whence the normal route to Karachi will be followed. K.O.S.B. v. KOWLOON F.C.

At Sookunpoo before a good attendance, Kowloon defeated the K.O.S.B. thereby maintaining their unbeaten record in the league and inflicting the first defeat on the K.O.S.B. this season. The teams lined as under:—

K.O.S.B.: Shears, Gardiner and Martin; Everest, Davey and Skings; Torrie, Stock, Reeves, McGlinchey and Alexander.

Kowloon F.C.: G. Angus; Gillott and C. Pile; Hedley, Dowman and Bliss; P. Pile, Gallagher, Simpson, McKelvie and Miles.

Referee: Mr. W. E. Hollands.

The game opened at a fast pace and there was little between the teams. The game was a needle one throughout and only one goal separated the teams at the close. McKelvie took advantage of an opening early in the game and took Shears by surprise with a fast low drive. The K.O.S.B. never recovered from this early reverse, and the forwards failed to round off the openings of a hard working middle line. The visitors showed the better team work throughout the game and should have netted more than once. Only in the closing minutes of the game were the K.O.S.B. seen to advantage and with a little luck should have pulled the game round. Kowloon defence however rose to the occasion and Gillott and C. Pile are to be complimented on their great display against a rushing set of forwards. Angus had plenty to do in the Kowloon goal in the closing minutes but came out of the ordeal with flying colours.

SOUTH CHINA v. CLUB DE RECREIO.

On the Railway ground, South China defeated the Club de Recreio by four clear goals. The teams lined as under:—

Club de Recreio: Lawrence; Ogley and Silva-Netto; Remedios, Sousa and Figueiredo; Rosa Pereira, Beltrao, Bernardo, Oliveira and Remedios.

South China: Pau Ka Ping; Li Ting Sang and Yu Cheuk Wa; Tong Kwan, Wong Yei, Leung Wing Chun; Chen Sui Hong, Chu Kwok Yuen, Leung Wing Tak, Lau Mau and Ng Po Kui.

This game attracted a large crowd but play was much below the standard of senior league football, the Club de Recreio putting up a poor show. South China got well off the mark and in the first minute, Chu Kwok Yuen beat Lawrence. After this reverse, the Recs, defending strongly.

Half-time: South China 1, Club de Recreio 0.

South China scored three goals in the second half and could have scored more. Chu Kwok Yuen put on two, and Lau Mau one.

Result: South China 4, Club de Recreio 0.

ST. JOSEPH'S v. H.K. POLICE.

St. Joseph's strengthened their team by the inclusion of Cobb and Kilbride in the attack and Wright at centre half.

The teams turned out on the St. Joseph's ground as under:—

St. Joseph's: Rocha; Hyder and Gomes; T. Leonard, Wright and O. Omar; R.M. Omar, Souza, Kilbride, Cobb and Jackson.

H.K. Police: Estall; Wynne and Williams; McEwen, Hudson and Johnson; Nolan, McGreavy, Dr. Valentine and Howarth.

Scoring twice in each half, St. Joseph's won by four goals to one, the Police goal coming in the last minute of the game.

There was not that difference in the play but St. Joseph's were better served in goal. A header from Kilbride opened the score and then Jackson scored with a fast cross shot.

Half-time: St. Joseph's 2, H.K. Police 0.

The Police opened the second half in convincing style but failed to press home their attack. A break-away by St. Joseph's saw Souza hit the crossbar and Cobb rushed the rebound into the net.

St. Joseph's added to their score in the next minute following a corner kick. Jackson sent across and Kilbride headed into the net.

The Police then re-shuffled their team and St. Joseph's were defending strongly. Hudson, Wynne and McGreavy being well to the fore. Several corners fell to the Police but St. Joseph's cleared well.

McGreavy got his head to a centre by Howarth and beat Rocha.

Result: St. Joseph's 4, H.K. Police 1.

ROYAL NAVY v. R.A.

At Caroline Hill, the Navy defeated the R.A. by three goals to one. The teams lined out as under:—

R. Navy: Jarvis; Sprattling and Carey; Churchouse, Dray and Lambert; Van Tromp, Firth, Kernick, Kennedy and Dickinson.

R.A.: Fletcher; Oliver and Joyce; Cotton, Allan, Gill, Jobe and Fredericks.

The R.T. started off at a cracking pace and were on top throughout the first half during which time Gill scored the only goal of the first half. The Navy then settled down and turned the tables, scoring three goals.

Kernick, the Navy center dashed through the defence to make the score one all and then Kennedy and Dickinson each got another.

CHINA ATHLETIC v. S.L.I.

The S.L.I. went to the Stadium with great hopes of returning with full points but the Athletic beat them by three goals to one. The teams lined up as under:—

China Athletic: Chan Shek Pui; Ng Kum Chuen and Lai Yik Tat; Ho Choi Yin, Wong Shui Wa and Lam Yik Ying; Tso Kwai Shing, Lai Wai Koon, Wong Pak Chong, Suen Kum Shun and Chan Chong.

S.L.I.: Hall; Crawley and Haywood; Knap; West and Harris; Palmer, Bewley-Bull, Rayson, Guest and Butcher.

The Athletic set the pace from the kick off and Haywood and Crawley were soon defending. A corner to the Athletic saw Wong Pak Chong heading into the net. The visitors defence could not get working and the absence of Baker upset the forward line. Suen Kum Shun, amid great applause, went through and beat Hall to give the Athletic a two goals lead at the interval.

The S.L.I. opened the second half strongly but found Ng Kum Chuen and Lai Yik Tat in good form. Then Tso Kwai Shing gave Hall no chance with a fast cross shot. Knap, converted from a penalty kick and the game ended in favour of China Athletic by three goals to one.

DIVISION II.

KOWLOON v. R.A.M.C.

Played on the Railway Ground. The home team managed to scramble, once after a hard struggle for the odd goal in three. Kowloon were the first to score Moss netting with a good shot. Jenkins took advantage of a middle in the home defence to steer the ball over Angus' head for an equaliser. The second half was fought out on similar lines, both sides missing opportunities. It was left to Eastman to record the winning goal with a clever cross shot.

Result: Kowloon 2, R.A.M.C. 1.

SOUTH CHINA "A" v. NAVY.

At Caroline Hill, South China were anxious to preserve their unbeaten record and managed to force a draw after a close struggle. There was little to choose between two keen teams, the Navy being slightly better in defence, and South China in attack. Dines for the Navy at outside left created a very good impression. Tam Tong Pak and Ip Yan Sam were the pick of the South China forwards.

Both goals had numerous narrow escapes in each half, but Buckingham and Wong held out in their respective goals, and an interesting struggle ended with a blank score sheet.

Result: South China "A" 0, Navy 0.

CHINESE "A" v. SOUTH CHINA "B."

This local derby was played at the Stadium and resulted in a smashing victory for the home team.

who netted six times without response. The winners were good value for their success, being far smarter than the South China team. Only a fine display by the visiting goalie kept the score from mounting to double figures. Shek Pui Tim scored twice prior to the interval, and in the concluding half further goals were added by Ho Kar Keung, Li Fong, Shek Pui Tim and Pong Tak Sui.

Result: Chinese "A" 6, South China "B" 0.

K.O.S.B. v. RECREIO.

The Borderers are going from triumph to triumph in the second division of the League. On Saturday they completely overran a weak Recreio team and did exactly as they pleased throughout the entire game.

The forwards showed remarkably good understanding while their shooting was a marked improvement on some previous displays. Crawley was the most conspicuous forward on the field while Stevens and Rice were not far behind him.

Result: K.O.S.B. 10, Recreio 0.

S.L.I. RES. v. EASTERN F.C.

Eastern lost their outstanding player in the first half through a sprained ankle. Sahban taking a corner kick unfortunately kicked the ground and had to receive attention. At the time the S.L.I. were leading by a goal, scored by Early in the opening minutes of the game. Sahban scored for Eastern and a struggle for the winning goal ended in favour of the S.L.I. when Hicks scored from a pass by Dinnard.

Results: S.L.I. Res. 2, Eastern F.C. 1.

CHINA ATHLETIC "B" v. H.K.F.C. RES.

The H.K.F.C. failed to register a point in their game with the Athletic "B" on the Navy ground at Happy Valley and went down by three clear goals. Leung Tak Wing opened the score for the Athletic, Lo Chai Wan and Li Ting Choi adding goals before the interval.

Although the Club defence played better in the second half, the forwards failed to impress and the second half was goalless. Wilson did well in goal for the Club and due to him the Club came away with only three goals scored against them.

Result: China Athletic "B" 3, H.K.F.C. Res. 0.

UNIVERSITY F.C. v. R.A. RESERVES.

Being a goal up at the interval, the R.A. failed to maintain their advantage and went down to the University who put on three goals in the second half of the game. The Gunners goal was scored by Chambers in the first half. Early in the second half, the University got away and Kho scored. From another break away Wong gave them the lead. Before the final whistle sounded Kho scored again.

Result: University F.C. 3, R.A. Reserves 1.

ST. JOSEPH'S RES. v. EWO. CHINESE.

These teams met on St. Joseph's ground and shared six goals. Towards the close of the game, the Ewo centre half was ordered to leave the field. This marked a fine game between the junior teams. Ewo secured their first league point. Gutierrez (2) and Haroon (penalty) scored for St. Joseph's. Chan Chee Tong (2) and Chan Shui Wing scored for Ewo.

Result: St. Joseph's Res. 3, Ewo, Chinese 3.

LEAGUE CRICKET.

SECOND DIVISION.

RECREIO v. I.R.C.

Last Season: I.R.C. Won by 39 Runs.

The Indian Recreation Club 2nd XI journeyed to King's Park on Saturday and received a surprise from the Recreio. The visitors batted first but soon met with disaster and at one time five wickets were down for 34. Some spirited hitting by J. M. A. Rumjahn, who was top scorer with 17 and 10 (not out), and by Email helped to bring the total to 74. The fielding of the Recreio team was excellent. Xavier took 2 wickets for 14 and Sousa 2 for 15.

Faced with this small total, the home eleven easily knocked out the required runs for the loss of only three wickets. The fielding of the I.R.C. was patchy, several easy catches going a-begging. Suffed bowed well for his 4 wickets which cost him exactly 8 runs apiece.

Last Season: R.A.S.C. Won by 6 Wickets.

An excellent innings of 82 (not out) by G. Lee helped the Kowloon seconds to inflict a defeat by 108 runs on the R.A.S.C.

The home team batted first and thanks to Lee's fine innings were able to declare their innings closed at 107 for the loss of only 5 wickets. Petheram also carried his bat for 28 runs.

The steady bowling of the Kowloonites proved too much for the Service side and they were all out for 65, with Skipp (10) as top-scorer. Hirst took 3 wickets for 14 runs, while Overy captured 3 for 14.

INDIAN R.C. v. THE ARMY.

A feature of this game at Sookunpoo was a polished innings by J. S. Abdul-Curram, who carried his bat for 109 runs. A. H. Madar who opened the innings for his side was also in fine form and made 53. This enabled the home team to declare at 209 for the loss of only 4 wickets.

With some of their best players engaged in the Interport practice the Army had a rather weak side and they were all out for only 90 runs. Swayne, 21, was the highest scorer for his side. Of the six bowlers tried by the Indians, Minu was most successful with three wickets for 19 runs.

Scores:—

I.R.C.: 209 for 4 wickets (declared).

CRAIGENGOWER "AT HOME."

Representatives of the various Clubs were the guests of Craigengower C.C. on Saturday when they were provided with games on six rinks. The occasion was the closing of the greens and the celebration of the Club's success in winning the League championship.

Winning on all six rinks, the Club players took all the spoons. The official rink and another skipped by U.M. Omar provided the best returns. At the tea interval the home rinks had a majority of 63 shots, and the final score 143-76—a majority of 67 shots. Teams and scores were:—

"Hat Trick" Anticipated.

At the close of the games, the visitors were thanked by Mr. B. W. Bradbury (President of the Club) for attending in such large numbers and making the afternoon's sport a success. He said that the Club was celebrating their lawn bowls victory in the Senior League, for which thanks were due to the team, particularly Mr. Bass and his rink, who also created a record for the Colony in scoring 116 shots up during the season. He also thanked the Committee for their hard work.

Mr. Bradbury expressed his regret that the visitors were unsuccessful in the afternoon's games, which meant that the Club players received all the spoons. He hoped, however, that they would meet with better luck next year and that the Club would then have done the "hat trick" in lawn bowls.

Mrs. Gonzalez presented spoons to the winning rinks, and the prizes in the season's competitions, she herself receiving a silver flower vase as a memento.

The Vice-President of the Lawn Bowls Association thanked the Club on behalf of the visitors for the hospitality extended to them.

Visitors Welcomed.

Mr. J. Laing, as Convener of the Bowls Committee acted as the spokesman in welcoming the visitors at the close of the games. He thanked the representatives of the other Clubs for their attendance, and also the ladies who so kindly provided home-made scones and pastries on the occasion of the occasion of the visit of the Shanghai inter-rink players. The thanks of the Club were also expressed to Mr. Greig for the gift of a new roller.

A humorous reference was made to the winning of the inter-departmental competition by the Wood Department, and he then congratulated the second team on winning the championship of their division in the League. The first team, although finishing lower down the table than usual, had provided a finalist in the open singles championship, two players in the Hong Kong inter-rink, and the winning rink in the Spey Royal Cup contest. (Applause.)

LESSON SERMON.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, HONG KONG.

"Everlasting punishment" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, November 3.

The Golden Text was: "God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil" (Eccl. 12: 14).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Out of the depths have I cried unto thee, O Lord. If thou, Lord, shouldst mark iniquities, O Lord, who shall stand? But there is forgiveness with thee, that thou mayest be feared." Let Israel hope in the Lord: for with the Lord there is mercy, and with him is plenteous redemption" (Ps. 130: 1, 3, 4, 7).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science text-book, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Divine Science adjusts the balance as Jesus adjusted it. Science removes the penalty only by first removing the sin which incurs the penalty. This is my sense of divine pardon, which I understand to mean God's method of destroying sin" (p. 40).

CHAMPIONS LOSE TO THE REST.YESTERDAY'S EXHIBITION
GAME.MRS. ROGER C. TREDWELL
PRESENTS THE PRIZES.

As a wind-up to the baseball season, the South China Athletic Association, league champions for 1929, played an exhibition game with "The Rest" at the Navy Field, Caroline Hill, yesterday.

It was evident from the start that "The Rest" were going to win and this they did by the margin of 4 runs, the final score being 7-3 in their favour.

Eddie Chang was off colour, and this necessitated a change in the battery after a few innings—M. Goo going on in his place. Yet another change took place after Goo had a trial, but M. Chang's efforts were of no avail. The Rest played an excellent game, and the fielding of the "Kiaora" representatives, C. B. Ng at "short" and C. K. Leung at centre-field deserves the highest praise.

At the conclusion of the game, Mr. Harry Hong Sing, the Hon. Secretary-Treasurer of the Baseball Association, called upon Mrs. Roger C. Tredwell to present the shield to the South China A.A. K. C. Weng, the manager of the Chinese outfit stepped forward to receive the shield amid applause. Opportunity was also taken to present the "Home-Run Cup" to "Big Ben" Zafra of the Filipino crew and in doing this Mrs. Tredwell said:—"Mr. Zafra, I understand you are the 'Babe Ruth' of Hong Kong, and I congratulate you."

The Ground Trouble.

The American Consul-General, Mr. Roger C. Tredwell, made a short speech in the course of which he mentioned that in spite of the enormous amount of trouble they had in getting a ground, the season had proved a very successful one. All this he attributed to the hard work put in by their indefatigable Secretary, Mr. Hong Sing. Mr. Tredwell said that he had done his best about getting a suitable field for the Association and hoped that they would be better off in this respect when the next season comes round. He concluded by congratulating the South China A.A. on winning the championship, and Zafra on again winning the Home-Run Cup. As regards the latter, Mr. Tredwell had given a cup for the most home-run hits before and the reason why he stopped doing so was because Zafra seemed to be winning it every time!

Three cheers were then called for Mrs. Tredwell, and heartily given.

The Teams.

The teams lined-up as under:—

R.H.K. YACHT CLUB.

THE OPENING CRUISE.

MORE COACHES WANTED.

The grounds of the Royal Hong Kong Yacht Club were gay with flags for the occasion of the opening cruise of the season on Saturday. It was a lovely day and the members and visitors passed a most enjoyable time, watching or taking a part in, yachting, rowing and boating. There was no mishap until the sailing sloop race, when Lieut. Commander Dain's "Simone" capsized to be towed in by the Commodore's pinnace, a mishap which was, fortunately, more exciting for the spectators than unpleasant for the central figure.

Commodore's Welcome.

Ten was served to the visitors from four o'clock till five o'clock when Mr. E. W. Carpenter, the Commodore, addressed the gathering and said:

For this, our opening cruise, the weather has been good, our Naval friends have turned up and given us a very interesting and spectacular sailing race. The ladies have keenly contested their races, while the club's oarsmen have given us two good rowing events and, last but not least, Mr. George Edwards and his team of embryo bowling interlopers have given us an interesting exhibition of their skill. I therefore think that the Club is justified in taking the view that the prospect of a very successful yachting, boating and rowing season has opened under the best of auspices.

There is one more thing I should like to mention and that is that Mr. Chambers, the Hon. Rowing Secretary, informs me that he will be able to send up to Canton to contest in the Regatta they are holding on December 14. Club crews consisting of senior and junior fours and senior and junior quads, besides a Veterans' Four.

At the present time the Club is short of coaches and I would take this opportunity to ask any qualified member or friend of the Club to come forward and assist in coaching the crews in order that they may not be handicapped by lack of coaching. I wish to thank Mr. Vernal and Mr. De Ville for their hard work in making the 1929 opening cruise the success. I must also mention that the ladies' race will probably take place on November 18.

EIGHTH EXTRA RACE MEETING.

LENGTHY PROGRAMME INCLUDES HONG KONG ST. LEGER.

SOME OF THE PROBABLES IN TRAINING.

[By "MORNING DEW."]

The programme for the Eighth Extra Race Meeting includes the Hong Kong St. Leger, and in the next fortnight there will be much speculation as to the probable winner.

Of the ponies in Hong Kong which are eligible to run in this race, Huiwata stands out prominently on the strength of his last two public performances, when he won so convincingly on each occasion in spite of heavy weights.

Some very good animals have returned from Shanghai, including Adam and Royal Flush, both of which were at work on Saturday, although they were not sent out on hard work. Majestic Hall covered a mile and is moving as well as ever.

Grand Tattoo Eve is a likely-looking customer, and has returned from Shanghai a much improved pony. He was sent over the mile and half on Saturday, his times over the different quarters being 43.3, 1.32, 1.58, 2.40.4, 3.24.3, 4.00.3. He was running freely, and was only pushed over the last fifty yards.

I wonder who will be on the saddle on November 18? Mr. T. L. Wong, I hear, will be back this week, and will no doubt steer the "Hall" stable.

Of the other animals which are here and can start in the race are Imperial Hall, Duke of Chantilly, Duke of Melrose, Triumphant Stag, Glorious Stag, Richmond Stag, Buster, Lightning, Little Thunder, Erins Isle, and a few others.

There is good reason to believe the field will be quite big, and it is very difficult at this stage to figure how things will turn out.

The subs are now breaking into their stride, and some of the animals are being given a little work now.

JOHNSTONE'S GENEROUS "REPATRIATION" OF PRIZES.

There was a large attendance at the informal social evening held at the V.R.C. on Saturday night when the prizes for the Open and Championship swimming events, including the Harbour Race, were handed to the successful competitors. After the presentation there was dancing to the music of the Lyric Orchestra.

Mr. Logan Reviews the Season.

Mr. W. Logan, in reviewing the season first of all, thanked the ladies and gentlemen who had generously contributed to the prize fund. They had held seven night fetes, all of which had been successful. They had been fortunate in having such a hard-working Committee and Hon. Secretary. (Applause.)

"Our Chinese friends came forward this year and I am pleased to see they carried off four events," said Mr. Logan. "The long plunge was won by Mr. Chiu Kwong Wah, and I believe this is the first time the prize has been won by the Chinese. The 100 yards breast stroke went to Mr. Wong Siang Hing, and the 100 yards back stroke went to Mr. Wong Siang Hing."

To Mr. "Jimmy" Johnstone they offered best congratulations in LAWN TENNIS.

MIXED DOUBLES CHAMPIONSHIP.

SEMI FINALS DECIDED.

The semi-finals of the Annual Open Mixed Doubles Championship of the Colony, organised by the Chinese Recreation Club, were decided on the Club's courts yesterday afternoon. They attracted a good deal of attention and resulted as follows:—

Miss Euid Lo and M. K. Lo beat Mrs. Sayer and E. C. Fincher 6-1, 6-3.

Mrs. Tottenham and Major Lucas beat Mrs. Taylor and J. S. McEachran 6-2, 6-2.

Los Enter Final.

In the first match, played on the No. 1 court, Miss Lo and her brother, M. K., demonstrated their superiority over Mrs. Sayer and Fincher throughout the match, winning eventually in straight sets.

Only on one occasion in the first set, when the Kowloon pair drew level after being one game down did the losers give the opposing pair a struggle, and after that the winners had matters much their own way. Miss Lo showed up extremely well, hardly making any error, while M. K. smashed with accuracy. Some colour was put into the match when the losers drew level after being 1-3 down in the second set. The Los fell off somewhat during the first six games but recovering at this stage, did not allow their opponents to make any further headway, and finished the match by taking the next three games.

The Other Finalists.

Mrs. Tottenham and Major Lucas qualified for the other place in the final by defeating Mrs. Taylor and McEachran also in straight sets. It was generally expected that they would win and they gave a very convincing exhibition. They showed extremely clever combination. Mrs. Tottenham holding the base line and Major Lucas playing very effectively at the net, hit overhead and volleys being the features of the match. The losers put up a game struggle especially as Mrs. Taylor had the misfortune to hurt her foot when the score stood at 4-2 in the first set. McEachran had a lot of work to do in consequence, and rose to the occasion.

THE FRENCH QUARTETTE.

The world-famed French quartette, who are making a round-the-world trip, are arriving here to-day by the s.s. Empress of France. Their visit is a source of excitement to local players and lovers of the game, and despite the fact that they will be seen in action at a rather inconvenient time, a very large crowd is expected to-morrow afternoon at the Chinese Recreation Club.

No arrangement, beyond the fact that they will play, has been made. It all depends on the visitors, with whom local authorities will fix the programme, but as they have agreed to play from 2 to 5 p.m. the leading locals entertain high hopes of being favoured with a crack against them.

It should be possible to play one singles match and one doubles against locals, and then exhibitions amongst themselves, if time permitted, say Cochet v. Brugnon at singles and the two against Landry and Rodell at doubles. The above should form a very desirable programme. In this connection M. W. Lo, S. A. and H. D. Rumjahn have already been requested to stand by the "kicks" which they have gladly agreed! The definite programme will be published to-morrow.

In anticipation of a very large attendance, the Chinese Recreation Club have provided accommodation for a thousand spectators.

carrying off the Championships for the 100 yards, 220 yards, 440 yards and 880 yards; in the last three events he was successful in breaking the existing records. "Mr. Johnstone is a young man and we hope he may remain long with us in the Colony to represent the old V.R.C."

"Speaking of the harbour race," said Mr. Logan, "I should like to mention the name of Mr. C. J. Cooke who took part and came second out of 17 competitors. Mr. Cooke was not properly trained, and up to the last moment was undecided whether he would swim."

"We take off our hat to Mr. Cooke and although he did not win, so indomitable is his spirit that there is no doubt we shall still see Mr. Cooke competing against his younger opponent, as long as there is a 'kick' left in him." (Applause.)

DAILY WATERFRONT NEWS.

FIRE ON THE S.S. ANTUNG

Fire broke out in No. 1 hold of the s.s. Antung (Butterfield & Swire) on Saturday afternoon at 1 p.m. The Central Fire Brigade received a call from the Harbour Office, and 1 Fire Float with Superintendent Brooks and Inspector Moss in charge, went to buoy No. 11 where the Antung was moored. The cargo in the hold consisted of some 40 packages of tea, matches and calendars. The fire float was soon alongside and with the aid of her many deliveries, the firemen were soon masters of the situation. The fire was extinguished by 2.35 p.m., and the Antung put into the Kowloon Docks. Much praise is due to the officers in charge of the fire float who were stated to have carried out their job in a most able manner. The damage to the Antung was slight.
